

Becoming a Logitech Partner

A guide to registering your company

We're excited for you to join us

When we work together, we do business better. Registering on our Partner Connect portal is the first step on your Logitech Partner journey, giving you access to support and tools to help you grow with us. Use this guide to understand and complete the partner registration process.

Make sure you select the Logitech Channel Partner Program

Logitech Channel Partner Program

The Channel Partner Program is designed for partners that are looking to resell Logitech solutions.

This program is designed for partners that have the following business models:

- Distributors selling to Resellers
- Resellers selling to End Customers
- Including System Integrators, Value-added Resellers, Managed Service Providers, National Security Providers, DMRs, and like.

Logitech's minimum advertised price (MAP) policy can be found here.

Logitech Technology Alliance Program

The Logitech Collaboration Program for Alliance Partners is designed for technology companies who want to jointly develop, test, and/or market complementary products or solutions. Select this program to:

- Gain access to product testing and engineering resources
- Market and promote an integrated joint solution
- Collaborate on go-to-market strategies for the joint solutions
- This program is NOT for Reseller Channel Partners

Before you begin

1. Check whether your company is already registered

The portal will find any companies listed under the same domain as your email address. Simply select the relevant location and fill in your personal details for immediate access

2. Ensure you have the authority to sign up as a partner

If your company is not already registered, this process must be completed by an employee who has the authority to accept our terms and conditions on behalf of the company. Other members can then be added for daily portal use and administration

3. Make sure you have the following information:

- Company details, including address and contact information
- Annual revenue figures and sales percentages
- Information relating to your company's focus, specialties, employees, and preferred distributors

The sign-up process

1. Visit partners.logitech.com and click the Apply button.
2. Enter your company email address and click Next.
3. Click Select Program in the Logitech Channel Partner Program box.
4. Fill out all the required fields* in the form that appears and click Submit.

What happens next?

You will receive an email confirming your submission while the channel partner team reviews your registration. A status update will be provided in 3-5 business days, and, if successful, you will receive a confirmation email with login details to access the Partner Portal. Once approved, additional employees can sign up for portal access and administer your company's account.
